FOR MANY NEW PARENTS, this major life change brings forth a moment of reassessment. Burcu Ercetin, Founder and Principal Interior Designer of Design & Curations Interior Design Studio, was a global brand director in marketing for a major firm and a new mom when she realized she needed a change. “Everything shifted when I became a mother,” Ercetin explains. “I craved beauty, function and calm. Redesigning our home became a creative outlet that turned into a calling.” Studying interior design early in the morning and late at night locked in her plans. Ercetin says, “It was the first time I felt completely aligned with both my creative instincts and my strategic background. My passion project became a whole new path.” Now, another fresh initiative is an online store. Ercetin shares, “Our new site, shopbydnc.com, is an extension of our work and commitment to provide approachable decor for real life.”
